I think that I shall never see
 The finish of this family tree!
 -- As endlessly it seems to grow
 From roots beginning very low,
 'Way back in ancient-history times
 In foreign lands and distant climes.
 Sprouting there, grew trunk and limb
 That dated back to time so dim.
 One seldom knew exactly when
 One's parents met and married then;
 Nor when the twigs began to grow
 With odd-named children row on row.

Now a verse like this is made by me,
 The end's in sight, as you can see.
 It's not the same with family trees;
 They grow and grow through centuries.
