Dear Mildred,

Don't know of a thing to write.
Guess I'll put my sweater together tonite as it's all done. It's a Red Cross sweater.

Went to Kirksville over the weekend and didn't get your letter until Monday. Got the other one yesterday.
Putting it mildly, I was quite shocked.
Everybody at Kirksville had gone home but Katherine.

Got a letter from Lucille yesterday. She said I had a good chance of getting it if it was up to the old board but they could only recommend teachers now as the Com. board appointed the teacher. They are having a meeting tonite. I think I'll call long distance tomorrow nite.

and find out what they did as Mr.
Rutherford is anxious to know what happened. ~~He~~ I told him about it and he said he was willing to let me go if I got it but it was up to the board. He said he'd recommend to them to let me go. Very nice about it altho he probably didn't like it much. Don't know as I even want the other school.
I don't have enough to keep me busy ^{here} tho.

can't think of anyone to write.
Doubt if I get this mailed tonight

Six,

Eunice
