A WHALE of a BOATLOAD in any man's boot camp!

Recipe for a Sailor

TAKE ONE CIVILIAN, slightly green. Stir from bunk at an early hour. Soak in shower daily. Dress in a blue jacket. Mix with others of his kind.

Grate on the chief's nerves. Toughen with booting. Add liberal portions of beans and soup. Season with wind, rain, snow. Sweeten from time to time with chocolate bars. Let smoke occasionally.

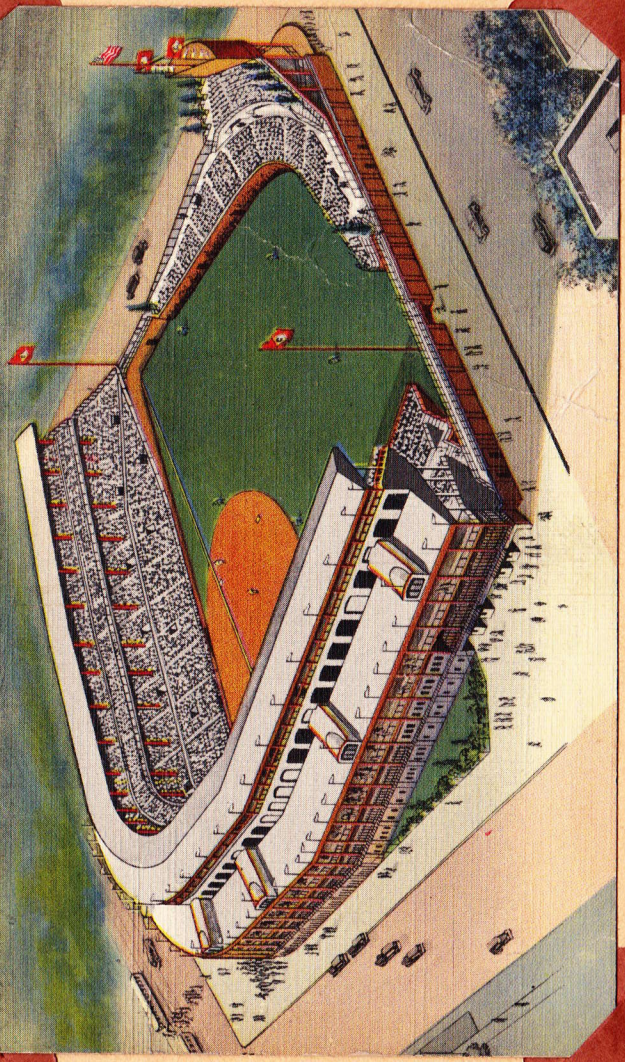

Bake in 110 degree temperature, simmer, and let cool below zero.

Today

by R.G. ~~Sunset~~ 32

Today the sun shines brightly,
Illuminating all the world.

Today A BREEZE blows lightly,
WAVING FLAGS UNFURLED.

Today seems to herald the coming
Of the days of Spring so near.

Today our hearts are relieved
Of ANY present fear.

Today we see our neighbors
And give him a greeting cheery.

Today we somehow forget
That we were ever weary.

Today we envision the future
And that which is to come,
Today we picture tomorrow
And hearts busy hum.

Today, with eyes turned skyward,
We ask our Father Above,
Today to help and to guide us
And watch over those we love.

Today we pray for "our" boys
So many miles away.

Today they are out there fighting
And giving their lives away.

Today we must work that much harder
To make up for the terrible toll,
Today we are one day nearer
To our inevitable goal!
