Translation of Part of Letter from Hendrina (Sister of Albertus and Wife of Gerrit Jan Elbert)

by

Johan and Gerrit Webbink

This letter has been too small for me (the paper was too small) because I want to let you know, that there is just a little less fruit than normal, so everything is expensive. (They sell the fruit.) A hektoliter of rye costs 10 gulden, a bushel of potatoes one gulden, butter costs 10 cents, speck (bacon) 50 cents, the workmen can't eat too much of what he produces but all earnings are good. Now I let you know that here in Overijssel we have American bacon and it costs only 30 cents, so that the ordinary people can buy it. Sister, you wrote once to me if I can read your letter that you should write, but I can't read it by myself, but my neighbor—she can write to you. Would you write once to me how it is going because I have nothing more important to write you. Receive greetings from all of us. Now I break off with the pen but not with my heart and you are from my wife and children saying goodbye. My dear brother and sister write to me again if you already get the money of your children and how old your children are. That is my address G J Elbert, Ambt Delden, Province Overijssel, Holland.

[NOTE: Gerrit Jan Elbert was married May 6 1852 to Hendrina Webbink, who was born July 29, 1824 and died in 1888. Hendrina was Albertus' sister.]

Dear Friend

Very glad to hear you are still healthy and your old father is still very healthy too and he was so glad that you wrote for he often said, "I wish I knew something about him," for we heart that the war over there was so terrible and so it is a great relief that you don't have to do with it any more and we hope you will have the Lord know that you don't want to have anything to do with it again and we hope that peace will come again very soon. Because of the war we are very poor here in Holland and we can't get any cotton anymore and that is so important for us because we need this for our living. We noticed too that you had a good voyage and then you are healthy too. What do you want more! We also noticed that the Lord has enriched you with two dear children and thus according to the wish of everybody. If the Lord had kept our children alive they would have been about the same age as yours but He took them. When both of them were born they were not alive and so we were subject to many sad experiences but what can one do. You have to submit yourself to the will of God and He knows what is best for us furthermore. I don't know what else to write. We don't know anything but the fact that your brother and sister are still healthy. Now I have to stop with the wish in my heart to give you greetings. Especially your old father sends greetings many times. We hope that we will still receive another message from you after this one and if the general condition of your father changes we will inform you thereof for the man is old. We hope you will receive this letter.

It would please me very much if I could soon hear from you, how you and your household are doing, if you all are still allowed to be in good health

Yours truly,
