53 in High School The second week of school welcomed a new member to the Junior class, furnishing the one boy in that class with a companion. This brings the high school enrollment to 53.

On Wednesday the regular Parent Teachers Association meeting was held. A report of the Labor Day picnic was made. In spite of the rain, which caused some confusion with the moving of stands etc., the report was favorable. Two of the senior boys, Leroy Meyer and Ernst Seauberlich, gave a report of their participation in the Missouri Boy's State which was held at Fulton earlier in the summer. The Parent-Teachers Association sent one of the boys and the American Legion the other. The boys gave an interesting account of their experience, and in spite of some of the things they learned about politics, they wish that two boys from the class might be sent every year.

The colored school has an enrollment of four. Mrs. Sutfield of Clayton is back again as the teacher.

Berthold Fuhr received an injury while at work on the MKT section last week Tuesday. A railroad spike struck his cheek. He was taken to the Katy hospital at Parsons. An X-ray picture showed there were no bones broken.

A surprise birthday party was given in honor of his 21st birthday anniversary of Leslie Meinershagen at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Meinershagen. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Meinershagen and daughter of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bergsaker and family, Lester and Lando Meinershagen, Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Mallinkrodt and family, Gus Begemann, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Begemann and daughter and the honored guest, Mr. Meinershagen.

(from last week) Schools in the Consolidated Dist. No. 1 opened Monday with 52 pupils enrolled in high school, 59 in the three grade rooms, 26 in the Femme Oage school and in the reopened Salem school. John Pitts, superintendent of the schools, and the other two high school teachers, Misses Georgia Vaught and Chloé Neal Wilson, were back after having attended summer school. Miss Vaught at Springfield State Teachers College and Mr. Pitts and Miss Wilson at the University of Missouri.

Miss Louise Schierbaum is the teacher of the upper grades, and Miss Florence Seht, who also attended the University of Missouri, is teacher of the intermediate grades and Miss Evelyn Koch is teacher of the primary grades. Miss Esther Clay is again at the Femme Oage school.

A new school organization was established with Leroy Meyer as its president being chosen by the student body. This new organization will be known as the Student Advisory Council. Its duty will be to act as advisor to the teachers and students. Any student having a complaint may take it to the council for consideration. Also, the advice of the council will be sought on all issues that may arise within the school dealing with student problems. The council is composed of eight members besides the president. These are: from the Senior class, Ruth Simpson and Ewald Richter; from the Junior class, Sylvester Weirich and Jacqueline Meyer; from the Sophomore class, Muriel Sollmann and Leonard Hopen; from the Freshmen class, Viola Siem and Leeman Seht.
